M'COY HAS IUN WITH THE FRENCH

Paris, Jan. 20.—They turned Kid Mc-Coy loose in the Paris Circle Hoche at Selby, an American amateur interested in boxing, and was invited to put on the gloves with the club's boxing instructor to entertain a little gathering of members and guests, among whom were Prince Gregoire Ghika, Duc d'Elchingen and the Marquis des

As he boxed McCoy delivered a lecture on the methods and punches of famous boxers. Every time he came to a description of a punch he would llustrate it on the professor. When he came to his corkscrew punch the professor gave out, and, as no substitute victim could be found, his lecture ended, and McCoy disclosed his

Although Chamberlain was the pecple's choice and there were enough members of the Legislature pledged to elect him, a determined effort was made for months to defeat him. Senator Fulton, whom Chamberlain will succeed, has, it is alleged, repeatedly vote for Chamberlain. Eastern politi- ance.

cal influences are alleged to have interfered in the Oregon Senatorial situation, and even the assistance of President-elect Taft and Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican National Committee, had, it is said, been solicited. Various members of the United States Senate were called on, but declined to ask Oregon legislators to violate the pledge.

A people's lobby assembled here from every section of the State, and the component parts of this lobby were determined to see that the pledged members abide by their obligations to vote for Chamberlain.
